

Liberal Arts Offering Brings Enrollment To New High

State Music Program via K. F. R. C

State Music Department Represents College Over Pacific Coast Columbia System

San Francisco State College has been selected to present a series of 16 musical programs on the Salvation Army Hour, which is to be broadcast from Station KFRC over the Columbia network on Fridays from 4:15 to 4:45.

The program will be moved to San Francisco from Los Angeles, where several colleges in the southern part of the state participated in the broadcast. State's music department, under the leadership of Dr. William Knuth, chairman, will present their opening number on February 14. The inaugural program will be based on Norwegian national music.

The first half of the series will consist of various types of folk songs and national music featuring favorite compositions of the Scotch, English, Irish, Spanish, German and Mexican peoples, and early American and Negro selections. The remainder of the program probably will be devoted to the celebration of the centennial of music in public schools.

Every musical organization on the local campus is co-operating to make the program a success. A special orchestra, which will be supplemented by twelve mixed voices, will be selected this week by Dr. Knuth. The Carriers, a Capella Choir and Madrigal Singers will also be featured.

Rehearsal for the program will be held every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at noon under actual broadcasting conditions with Ted Gifford, popular announcer, in charge. Mary Weaver McCauley, Miss Aileen McCall and Mr. Raymond White, music instructors of the college, will assist Dr. Knuth.

This attempt at providing entertainment in the radio field is thoroughly approved by all members of the administration.

The practice in radio technique which this program will give is, according to Miss McCall, of the very best in practical value for future field work of music students.

Noon Activity Plans Expand

A new and more extensive recreation program, sponsored by Miss Vilda Cundiff and Harold H. Harden, and under the student direction of Virginia Conlan and Bill Eich, assisted by Marguerite Winters, W. A. A. supervisor, is planned for each noon except Wednesdays, when there will be a free student body dance.

Badminton and table tennis mixed doubles and singles players will have a tournament in the near future. Those wishing to participate in these tournaments should sign up in College Hall or in the gym.

There is to be a horseshoe pit which will be available for both men and women, if present plans are followed. Those in charge plan to introduce at least one new game each week.

Students who are interested in this recreational program should see Virginia Conlan or Bill Eich.

Miss Conlan states, "Organized play of this type should bring the students closer together and acquaint the newcomers with the numerous activities offered at State. We hope to get the entire support and co-operation of the student body."

Dr. Hanna Lectures On 'World Tomorrow'

"World Tomorrow" is the new title for a highly successful series of lectures given last term under the name "World Today." There will be fifteen lectures in all, the first to be given on February 10 by Dr. Paul Robert Hanna of the department of education of Stanford.

Dr. Hanna is well equipped for the task he undertakes. He brings a career rich with experiences and study on this subject as well as other related fields. He is a polished lecturer and has spoken before numerous educational groups. His answer to the postulated question of "What Kind of Social Idealism Is Evolving?" is found in his lecture entitled "What Will Be the Social Idealism of the Educator?"

Foxy Frosh Wins Award; Stuns Staff

"My name is Dorothy Fox. I live in Oakland and graduated from Roosevelt high school." That was what a young freshman girl was writing on her registration card, but to the student journalists of San Francisco State these words read quite differently. For Dorothy Fox was the winner of Alpha Phi Gamma's scholarship award; she is slender, blonde, and beautiful, and (said the editor) possessed of an A-1 personality.

Dorothy, as a result of her victory in a competition involving students from high schools in all parts of Northern California, will have all her fees, books and incidental expenses paid for by the local chapter of the journalism fraternity.

Miss Fox is already a member of the Friday staff of the Golden Gater and will write news articles and "cover" a regular "beat" for the paper.

Franciscan Pledges At Half Mark

With an assured total of 560 out of the 900 subscriptions required for publication, the 1936 Franciscan is now at the critical point of its existence, according to managers of the book. Of these subscribers, approximately 220 were new deposits received at the time of registration.

This term's need of a student supported non-compulsory annual has led to the necessity of taking pledges for the annual in advance. But, according to Ruth Walker, the staff is doing its best to overcome the handicap.

Further efforts to obtain the necessary deposits will be made beginning next week, when students will be stationed in College Hall between the hours of 11 and 2 o'clock.

Deposits of fifty cents or one dollar may also be paid in Room 114 of College Hall.

In the process of obtaining subscriptions a student body rally was held, talks were given, and personal letters were written to upper division students by Dr. Lawrence Kinnaird, faculty sponsor.

Senior pictures are being taken at the du Charmé studios, 220 Post street, according to Ruth Walker, Franciscan editor. A charge of fifty cents will be made, proofs being provided from which the final gloss picture may be chosen. The final day for taking photographs will be decided upon shortly, so that it is necessary to make appointments as soon as possible, the editor indicated.

To 'Love, Honor and Obey' State Students Say O.K.

Two San Francisco State clubs recently effected a merger, getting around the anti-trust laws by forming an interlocking directorate, is the "news behind the news" found in last week's vital statistics columns.

Larry Fanning, president of the English Guild, performed this feat when he entered into holy wedlock with Phyllis Burnham, past president of the Phyllis Burnham club. English Guild members are quite reconciled to the event, but the Burnham club is wrecked upon the rocks with their Lorelei gone forever. The couple will continue their studies at State.

A. C. Roberts Welcomes All New Students

Incoming Freshmen Will Be Welcomed in First Assembly At Baptist Church on Feb. 19

"I wish to extend a sincere and hearty welcome to you, the new students of San Francisco State," declared Dr. Alexander C. Roberts, president of the college, in a greeting today in anticipation of the Welcome Assembly to be held at the Baptist Church on February 19.

"We are now in a position to do more for the new students than ever before," the president said. He pointed out that the school's teacher instruction curriculum is larger and more varied, and that the liberal art curriculum has been approved for classes to begin this semester.

"Our growth and advancement," Dr. Roberts continued, "typifies the determination of Mr. Vierling Kersey, the State Board of Education, and the state administration, which has given our students the best the state can provide."

President Roberts also gave a special word of greeting to the junior college transfers, adding that he hoped they would enjoy their stay at State. "The new students," he said, "will find our students and administration eager to help them over any difficulties that may arise while they are here."

The college president will officially welcome the new students at the Welcome Assembly, when faculty promotions and changes will be announced and student officers introduced. All students, new and old, have been invited to attend the assembly.

Keep Commandments, Freshmen: Sophomores

"Honor thy upper classmen that it may be well with thee and thou mayest live long on the campus." These traditional words of warning were given to the class of 1940 as sophomores, under Daryl Hopkins, prepared to punish recalcitrant freshmen who refused to obey the Frosh Commandments as listed in the handbook.

Foremost among these are the ones making the wearing of jeans and dinks mandatory and the ban on smoking on the campus. From now on the freshman class will be on probation until their task of building the bonfire has been accomplished.

The commandments that are to be most rigidly enforced, according to Bud Decker, president of the high sophomores, are the ones concerning the wearing of jeans and dinks, talking to women, smoking on the campus, sitting on the benches, and wearing of high school letters or insignia. "Also," Decker warned, "these frosh had better learn the school song and yells."

Happy Snow Frolic At Truckee Planned

Students from S. F. State, U. S. F. and St. Mary's will frolic in the snow at Truckee during the week-end of Washington's Birthday. Miss Virginia Conlan, vice-president of the student body, is making arrangements for State students. The cost for the round trip will be $8.75 exclusive of food. Those interested can get in touch with Miss Conlan or drop a note in Box 901.

Plans Begun On New Field

Plans for improvement and building State's newly acquired athletic field are marking time pending changes in the original blue prints submitted by the state engineer. A survey of the park was recently completed by the State Division of Architecture and a faculty committee composed of Dean David J. Cox, Coach Hal Harden, Coach Dan Farmer, Mrs. Florence Stephenson and Miss Doris Holtz are co-operating with student body representatives to complete plans before operations begin.

A tentative diagram submitted by the designer includes a one-fifth mile track twenty-four feet wide with bleachers flanking the field on the north and south sides. A field house will be constructed under the north bleachers temporarily until arrangements can be made for building on some other part of the grounds. The central field will accommodate football, baseball and soccer at various seasons. Ample facilities have been provided for other sports also. There are three tennis courts in prospect, two to be on the Guerrero street side of the field and the third near the north bleachers. Basketball courts are planned for the Valencia street corner. These can be used as handball boxes when the occasion requires.

In time a complete athletic plant will be available to students of the college. "With the acquisition of the new field, our athletic interest and program is bound to expand," Coach Cox explained. "We offer one of the best and most complete courses in California preparing physical education teachers and coaches," he added.

The field is located on Fifteenth and Valencia streets and was obtained for the college only after a long five-year struggle involving many legal complications.

Registration Figures Set New Record

Initial Four Days Marked By Impressive Gains Over Former Years; Totals Incomplete

Indications that student enrollment for the coming spring term at State would top all previous records for the semester were substantially sustained by early figures obtained from Miss Florence Vance, college registrar, last Wednesday. It was confidently expected that registration would equal or exceed the 1600 mark inside two or three weeks. Past files on the subject prove that the total for the first four days of the present term are within easy striking distance of all grand totals of former years.

"We have only 119 more to go this semester to exceed the total amassed for the fall term of 1935," said Miss Vance when interviewed by the Gater representative. Other interesting facts were discovered in this connection. After the fourth day in the fall of 1935 it was shown that 169 additional persons were enrolled. This is slightly below the figure for spring 1935 when 175 new students signed registration booklets after the fourth day of sign-ups.

Mr. Leo C. Nee, financial sponsor of the school, was confident that the 1600 mark would be quickly exceeded, showing that present figures were about fifty ahead of past totals.

Throughout the registration period the advisory council, headed by Claire Schumacher, and the registration committee, under the chairmanship of Mary Carra, functioned with efficiency.

Miss Vance stressed the fact that figures are far from complete and that a large number generally register long after the first period. New students from all bay area high schools are unusually large in number this year, as proven by the fact that 244 booklets were distributed to new freshmen up to Saturday.

Dance to Honor Hoop Victories

Music will vie with athletics for top honors on Saturday night, February 8, when a dance sponsored by the Associated Students will be held immediately following the basketball game with Chico State, was the announcement today of Alice Moroney, chairman of the arrangements committee.

Planned as a celebration of San Francisco State's successful basketball season, the committee promises a good orchestra and a novel program. Assisting Miss Moroney on the committee are George Mirande and Daryl Hopkins.

State students, with student body cards, will be admitted to the dance for ten cents, while outsiders will be charged 25 cents. Members of both the San Francisco and Chico State basketball teams will be admitted free.

Ed Morgan, president of the Associated Students, declared that the dance "deserved the complete support of the entire student body," because the basketball men have been "working hard all season and have brought State into the athletic limelight."

While the dance is not to begin until after the game, Morgan explained, students should arrive early to see the varsity in action. "It will be a good game," he promised. "Let's have lots of spirit and support the team with our attendance and encouragement." Bob Links, Joanne Conlan and Mary Biggam will lead the rooters in yells.

Phony God Scares Lee in Interview

"God" came calling on Dr. Edwin E. Lee, superintendent of schools, last week. The interview wasn't exactly pleasant. In fact, it was more or less unpleasant, and ended with three policemen and two hospital attendants taking "God" to the observation ward.

"God" had tried to tell Dr. Lee just how the schools of the city should be run. However, Dr. Lee was not interested and three policemen and the two internes ended the interview.

Efforts to determine the identity of the woman who crashed the superintendent's office were of no avail. She simply declared that she was "God."

A New Sort
Of Welcome

Dear Freshman:

Being only a sophomore, I am reluctant to give advice. However, just on the strength of the fact that I HAVE preceded you by that one year, I'm going to tell you something. You can accept it, or you can disregard it. But in the event that you disregard my words, on your graduation day you'll regret having done so. At least, so I believe.

What I have to say is simply this: ENTER INTO EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES. Dr. Alexander C. Roberts, president of our college, has expressed himself as greatly in favor of extra-curricular work, so this is not merely a thought rendered up at random by an ordinary fellow student. Don't misunderstand, though. I won't go as far as to say that you haven't lived until you have won your block "S," or until you have debated for State, or until you have written for the Golden Gater, etc., etc. Nevertheless, these little things season what might otherwise be an insipid four years of study.

Next week and the one following, State organizations will be giving teas, receptions, and so on, in an attempt to gain your interest. Pick out some, the ones you like best, and join them. This is one of the quickest ways for you to make friends, and it's a sure antidote for boredom and monotony.

Yours sincerely,

B. R.

Someone Spoke
Out of Turn

Speaking out of turn is a serious offense when only the speaker is involved but it becomes a very grave matter when the same person takes the responsibility of speaking for a large group of people without their permission. It is unfair and decidedly unsportsmanlike.

A State student at a recent meeting of the Young Communist League in the city took it upon himself to do just that. Quoting from one of the dailies and omitting the offender's name, we reprint the following: "Communist propaganda sponsored by the YCL is thriving at the college and is widely discussed by students at open forums and other meetings." We demand to know by what right the speaker made this assertion. It is grossly unfair to the students of State as a whole and has absolutely no foundation in fact.

This issue of the Golden Gater marks a new experiment in journalism at State College and a step forward in bringing our own college publication up to date. It takes courage for a student body to make so unknown and untried a step. Generous support of a splendid Executive Board and an enthusiastic Board of Publications made a semi-weekly possible. The staff desires to commend Dorothy Locke for her original and effective masthead design.

That's What You Think

By AL CARTWRIGHT '38

Around and 'round it goes! What? Why, the question that has been sweeping the campus this week. How do you like the new split term system just inaugurated here?

Ruth Creon, '38: "Oh, I like it! Why, I have a chance to study and rest up for finals; besides, it gives you a longer vacation."

Edgar Colton, '39: "It's not so hot! What about us fellows that have to work during vacation? It doesn't give us much time to study."

Ed Braverman, '39: "Sure, it's a great idea. It gives me a chance to catch up on my studies."

Isabel Schultzberg, '39: "Before vacation, of course. You can't study during vacation; and besides the worry spoils your holiday fun."

Art Rosen, '36, Block "S": "Naw, it's terrible. You don't feel like doing the same old work after a vacation. You tell 'em I think it's the bunk."

Charles Eisenhut, '38: "No, I don't care for it at all. After I come back from a vacation there is a natural let down in my work and it takes time to get organized."

Alexis Carrell, Nobel prize winner, will teach at the University of California during the spring semester.

Scaly Scandals

By AL E. GATOR

Hey, Doktor! Here's that alligator again. Yes, Allie has been keeping his claws on the impulse of the public, and two events promise to keep things hot for the spring stretch.

First, there's the break-up of the Phyl Burnham club. Now that she's married, about half the male population of this college community are released to prowl in new fields of endeavor.

They sat alone in the moonlight, And she soothed his troubled brow: "Dearest, I know my life's been fast, But I'm on my last lap now."

Second, there's the influx of a big bunch of nifty frosh femmes. And with guys like Harry McDevitt on the loose, ye gods, they have our pity.

And Allie, finding a history course VERY coarse, sneaked out to discover that Ralph Manion is now definitely Pat Berry's magnificent obsession, for they're engaged. Nor was this campus crocodile shocked to get wind of the fact that this boy Rantz is in "this weak's male" for Valeska Dougherty, but maybe she thinks the postman always rings twice.

Shake my scales, but Betty McDonald pulled a fast one. She flunked S.S. 32 two terms in a row, but talked to Doc Ascher for two straight hours and (b'gosh) he raised the mark to a "C."

A Berkeley belle (not the tennis shark) named Carolyn Keyes is busy unlocking the romantic talent of Burton Johnson. And then there's John Werchick and His Carrie Weintraub. And that's "dirty" for today, friends.

Anyone who wastes his time reading this tripe is nutty. And I am even goofier to bother to knock it out. This column was bad last year... well, it is going to be worse this year. So here goes nothin'!

IT WASN'T MY fault. I wouldn't have taken the date, but Harry's girl liked her and wanted to see her get around. I didn't have any excuse and they bought my ticket to the Frolic.

When she came down the stairs I shuddered. I grabbed Harry. She was dressed in lavender or something, her slip showed decidedly, her dress was low in back, and I could see she was skinny. Her hair was corn color, and she wore horn-rimmed glasses.

She liked me, of course. When we danced, I held her away as much as possible but I couldn't prevent her knees from knocking mine.

On the way home she said she liked my car better than hers. I asked her what kind of a car she had and she said it was a Packard. I wondered what business her father was in and she said he was president of a big bank in Omaha. In June we were married.

YE MAN OF THE STREET: Have you the price of a cupacoffee? STUDENT: Oh, I'll manage somehow, thank you.

By the way, Mrs. Monroe once said, "It is a fact that most feeble-minded girls are beautiful." I wonder if most beautiful girls are feeble-minded.

EXECUTIVE BOARD NOTES

The fifteenth regular meeting of the Executive Board was called to order by President Edward Morgan on Monday, January 6, at 7:10 p. m. The minutes of the previous meeting were approved as read.

COMMUNICATIONS were received from Mr. Stacheloff concerning a block "S" award which he has not been given, Mr. James Gray concerning Jacqueline Duke, the child violinist, Miss Maas concerning the awning belonging to the Nursery School, Dr. Roberts upon the new Recreational Park bought by the State for the College, and from the Advisory Council asking for approval of their membership list.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Mr. Worth reported that an amphitheater would cost about $500. It would seat 1450 people. He suggested that rallies could be held at Recreational Park but the board felt we needed a place on the campus to hold rallies.

Mr. Morgan reported on the Opera House for the May graduation. Donations would be made from the following sources: The class of January, 1936; the class of May, 1936; the Student Body and the administration. A motion was made and seconded that $125 be given for the Opera House by the Student Body, half to be paid this term and half next semester. Motion passed.

Mr. Parrish asked a question concerning the fee paid to the Student Body for use of the P. A. System. It was made clear that $125 be paid the person taking charge of the P. A. System to and from College and $125 would be paid to the Student Body from the organization or class treasury for use of P. A. System.

Mr. Smith asked why little had been done about the improvement of the Co-Op. Mr. Cockrum was asked to draw up new plans and present them to the Board and then to Dr. Roberts.

Mr. Smith and Mr. Decker were asked to hold a raffle to give away the old school flag.

Discussion of the annual followed. There will be no annual unless students back it. The Board felt that there should be an annual and that everyone should work to put the idea over.

Election of class officers was discussed. Hours were assigned each member of the Board to take care of voting.

A motion was made and seconded that candidates for class offices be allowed three posters, 18 inches by 24 inches. Motion passed.

NEW BUSINESS

A motion was made and seconded that Mr. Stacheloff be given a block "S". Motion passed.

A motion was made and seconded that a typewritten list of students' names and post boxes be put over the student file for convenience of students. Motion passed. It was suggested that classes submit important dates for social functions as soon as possible. The A. W. S. has asked for March 14 as date for their dance.

A committee was appointed to see about the Recreation Park. Mr. Dumenil, Miss Conlan, Mr. Morgan and Mr. Hamrock to serve on committee.

Mr. Hamrock discussed a Tag Day to be sponsored by the A. M. S. Fifteen cents a tag which would entitle the bearer to a dance to be held in February.

It was suggested that a House Committee of 20 members be organized to cover College grounds. Posters to be made to keep grounds clean.

As there was no further business the meeting was adjourned at 9 o'clock.

Respectfully submitted,
GRACE WHITBY,
Secretary of Student Body.

REVIEWS

By ELM

If Dickens' has always been to you (as it has to so many) intolerably boring reading, then you should welcome the filming of the immortal classic, "Tale of Two Cities."

This picture combines all of the elements of good acting and good direction to produce an outstanding vehicle for Ronald Coleman.

Those who are avid Dickens' readers may resent the changes made in the script, but as a whole the production has done much to popularize Dickens.

The cast, containing many eminent stage as well as screen stars, includes the names of such personages as Fritz Lieber, prominent Shakesperian actor, cast as Gaspard; Blanche Yurka, as Madame de Farge, and Henry "Birth of a Nation" Walthall, with countless others.

Coleman gives a splendid portrayal of the brilliant but drunkard lawyer, and throughout the production the fine hand of the director, Cecil B. DeMille, can be felt. Truly a picture not to be overlooked, and—a word to those who don't like Dickens (at the risk of losing my head, I'll add my name to this group)—see "A Tale of Two Cities" and you will find that you at least don't abhor Dickens any more.

Other excellent cinema fare is offered to San Francisco theater goers in "Milky Way," a picture which brings us back Harold Lloyd after a long absence. The bespectacled favorite of movie fans for many years, Lloyd presents in this vehicle a really riotous comedy that compares favorably with the others he has made during his many years in Hollywood.

Bing Crosby, Ethel Merman, Robert McWade, Charlie Ruggles and Ida Lupino have joined forces to bring us a screen adaptation of the stage play "Anything Goes." Robert McWade is well known to San Francisco fans as a former member of the Henry Duffy troupe. Charles Ruggles needs no identification as a movie comedian, but his role as a dog fancier in actual life is a fact that has escaped the general press.

State Track Team Faces Hard Season

With the Interclass meet only three weeks away, San Francisco State's track and field aspirants are holding daily workouts on the lower field, up per field, or any other place they get a chance to limber up. Kezar Stadium has been closed since the football season ended, and the Staters have been left without a track to run on.

Despite the handicaps the Staters must face, nearly fifty candidates signed up for the track squad at a meeting last Monday. Coach Dave Cox issued training instructions and announced a nine-meet schedule. State's first intercollegiate competition will be against Marin and Menlo Junior Colleges on March 7, one week after the Interclass battle. Most of the meets will be held away from home because of the lack of facilities.

Ten veterans from last year's squad will form the nucleus of the State team. The Gaters will be strong in the field events, with Runar Stone, Darryl Hopkins, Owen Jones, Bill Harkness, Steve Ebert, and Gordon Bolander earning most of the points. Stone and Hopkins are outstanding high jumpers; both cleared 6 feet last season. Stone will also enter the pole vault, javelin throw, and broad jump events. Jones is a first class discus thrower and occasionally picks up a point in the shot put. Harkness holds the school record in the pole vault. Ebert and Bolander have a fair record in the shot put.

In the track events, Stan Kuder, miler and half-miler, will again occupy the limelight, with Lucian Morrison and Stone battling for their share of glory in the hurdle races. Kuder holds the school record in both of his events; they are 2:01 in the 880-yard run and 4:36 in the mile. Morrison's best time in the high hurdles is 15.4 seconds, with Stone a scant one-tenth of a second behind.

State's tentative schedule follows:
February 29—Interclass.
March 7—Marin J. C. and Menlo J. C. (Tent.).
March 14—Cal Aggies at Davis.
March 21—San Mateo J. C. at San Mateo.
March 28—Modesto J. C. at Modesto (Tent.).
April 4—Santa Rosa J. C. at Santa Rosa (Tent.).
April 11—Chico State at San Francisco.
April 18—San Jose State at San Jose.
April 25—Nevada and Cal Aggies at Reno.
May 2—Open.
May 9—San Francisco J. C. in San Francisco.

Sports Authorities To Write Stories

Outstanding sports writers of bay area newspapers will contribute to a new feature entitled "Sports Slants" to be run in the Tuesday issues of the Golden Gater, according to an announcement by Evelyn Harris, managing editor.

Twelve sports authorities were contacted recently and were asked to write a short article on any subject they desire. Most of them sent a favorable reply. Harold Lehman, night sports editor of the San Francisco News, will present his views on "College Athletics" in next Tuesday's issue.

State Team Strengthened By Many New Candidates

Baseball's wheel of fortune spun for Coach Hal Harden last Monday. Out of the initial signup of candidates, the State mentor found himself a much needed pitcher, one All-conference outfielder, one shortstop, and ten other new prospects.

Add these to the already strong team that Coach Hal has returning, and his cup of joy should be just about full. The all-star infield from last season will be back in full force. Frank Regan at short, Joe Lee at second, Kenny Wilkes at third, and George Bogdanoff at the initial sack, is a combination that has been the nemesis of the various opponents State has met in the past two years.

Trying to crash into this veteran infield combination will be Floyd "Noisy" Walter, a classy shortstop in his own right. Bud Decker and Conrad Mollrath also expect to be part of the crashing act.

Pitching Staff Weak

Dapper Hal's pitching staff, reputedly in a delapidated state, will be bolstered by the addition of Ed Gravin, former Balboa High School star. When Vernon Whitney departed to the outside world, he left George Powles to shoulder the mound duties and Coach Harden due cause to worry. Powles is of a more or less unknown quality in the role of pitcher. However, he has made a name for himself with the Pacific Greyhound nine, a strong semi-pro outfit.

Harden's tear-stained eyes, dimmed by the loss of Bill Abbey, former Mission High School luminary who is breaking into Coast League company with the Sacramento Senators, were brightened at the sight of Hal Woods. Woods used to patrol the centerfield pasture for San Mateo back in 1931. At the time the peninsula junior college was up among the leaders, Hal was named on the All-conference team. Musty records give him a batting average of close to the .375 mark.

Veteran Outfield Combination

He'll have his work cut out for him in attempting to break into the present combination of Clint Purcell, Pat Bowers, and Bob Marcus, all of whom have played two years for State.

Four catching candidates somewhat eased the pain of the loss of Abbey. They are Charles Iago, Bob Hart, Bud Glasgow, and Ed Thomas. The latter is a transfer from Menlo J. C.

W. A. A. HOLDS MEETING TODAY

A special meeting of the W. A. A. is being called this noon by Marguerite Winter, president, to make a definite schedule for the noon recreation program. This schedule will be announced in the next issue of the Golden Gater.

The officers elected to head the W. A. A. this term are Marguerite Winter, president; Marjorie Prescott, vice-president; Virginia Kyriazi, secretary; Blanche Tuggey, treasurer. Mrs. Florence Stephenson is faculty sponsor for the organization.

The W. A. A. spread, which serves primarily as a means of introducing the new students to the club's activities, will be held February 13, in the women's gym, from 11 to 1. All women on the campus are invited to be present. Managers of the various activities will be introduced at this time, and sign-ups for the sports will be posted.

Mirande Selected Athletic Manager

George Mirande, intra-mural sports manager, has taken over the duties of Athletic manager in the absence of Gene Dumesnil, who has obtained a position with the Springfield Fire and Marine Insurance Company.

Dumesnil will retain his vote on the executive board, but the various duties of his office will be handled by Mirande. The genial athletic manager completed most of the work assigned to him before giving up the job, and the hard-working Mirande promises to see that the remainder of the task is handled perfectly.

45'S SCHEDULE TWO CONTESTS

Coach Kenny McGrew's 145-pound cagers, who have played twenty games so far this season, are out this weekend to increase their season batting average, which is .500, ten wins and ten losses.

Two tough games are on tap for the McGrewmen, his cagers playing the preliminary to each of the varsity's tussles against Chico State, scheduled for Friday and Saturday nights. These lightweight contests start at 7 p. m. at the State gym.

Friday, the State Lightweights meet the strong Collegians, whom State defeated last year by a close margin. Out for revenge, the Collegians will be no easy pickings, according to Coach Kenny.

Saturday the Visitation Valley club opposes the Baby Gaters. Already holding one win this season over the boys from the "hollow," the McGrewmen hope to annex another. The Visitation Valley lads hold another view, however. Coach Allen Bell has strengthened his team for this battle.

The State lightweights have defeated the following teams so far this season: Dynamo A. C., Polytechnic Hi, Pittsburg Hi, Lowell Hi '30's, Commerce Evening Hi '30's, Frank's Smoke Shop, Olympic Club '45's, Visitation Valley, Pal's A. C., and Lowell Hi varsity.

The following aggregations have taken the measure of the Staters: Lowell Hi, Commerce Evening Hi, St. Paul C. Y. O., Red Devils (2), Commerce Hi, Fruitvale A. C., Olympic Club '45's, and S. F. J. C. lightweights.

Last Wednesday, the McGrewmen lost to the S. F. J. C. lightweights, 27 to 23. During the past week the Baby Gaters were strengthened by the enrollment of three former high school stars, Barney DeBisschop, a member of the championship Lowell varsity last season; Bob Statler, another ex-Cardinal, and Dick Oxtot, a former Galilea luminary.

Twenty out of 57 universities and colleges recently questioned report that they maintain motion-picture service for about 5,000 other schools.

Gaters Out To Break Chico State 'Jinx' In Series Over Weekend

Coach Farmer Thinks Little of State's Chances Against Strong Wildcat Basketball; "Will Lose by Twenty Points"

With a prospect of breaking into the win column for the initial time against the Chico casaba artists, San Francisco State will play a two-game series with the Wildcats tonight and Saturday night. Both contests are slated for the Golden Gater's gym.

In eight games ranging over a period of four years, the visiting quintet has succeeded in turning back the best efforts of the Golden Gaters, but the local five is rated an even chance to break the long reign this season. The dope sheet gives the local five a slight edge on previous scores and experience.

Faces Mentor

Farmer Predicts Losses

However, Coach Dan Farmer, who has been whipping his charges to a cyclone-frenzy these practice days, thinks little of the local aggregation's chances. State's recent defeat at the hands of the San Francisco J. C. five revealed several weak spots in the Gater offense, so much so that Farmer is worrying a-plenty. In fact, Coach Dan'l goes so far as to state that "the Gaters will be lucky to finish within twenty points of the Wildcats."

To date, the Wildcats are credited with nine wins and eight losses, an impressive record inasmuch as the Chico schedule includes several strong teams such as St. Mary's, San Francisco U., and Oregon. Chico opponents have scored a total of 593 points as against 652, an average of 38 per game, for the Wildcats.

The Gater record is equally impressive, comprising ten wins and four losses. Purple and Gold opponents have tallied but 421 markers as against 585, an average of 42 per contest, for the locals.

Comparative Scores Even

Both teams have battled Nevada University and Cal Aggies in two-game series, and in all instances team scores were too close to make a prediction anything but risky. Against the Nevada five, both the Wildcats and the Gaters broke even with the aggregate scores of the three schools being almost equal. However, Chico lost one tussle to Cal Aggies by a lop-sided score, while San Francisco turned back the Mustangs twice this season.

Mainly through the efforts of Pat O'Connell, elongated guard, and Wally Campbell, a hard-fighting center, an experienced Wildcat quintet has found little difficulty in overpowering the local hoopers the past two seasons. However, Coach Art Acker, Chico mentor, has found it necessary to bolster his squad with frosh stars this season.

Probable Lineups Given

Aroused by the Jaysee victory, the veteran Gater squad is out to vindicate itself on the Wildcat. "Queenie" Chioino, leading scorer for the local five, and Clem Zannini will probably be elected to hold down the forward posts. "Cy" Atkinson at center, and Dick Hurst and "Ol' Reliable" Harry Post will make up the remainder of the starting line-up.

Probable starting line-up for Chico is David Rizzi and Harold Schilling, forwards; Campbell, center; O'Connell and Ed Jorgensen, guards.

CHIOINO TAKES LEAD IN SCORING COLUMN

Earning an average of 9.5 points in each of the State varsity's fourteen games, Merv Chioino, veteran forward, is leading the Purple and Gold scorers. He has chalked up a total of 135 markers this season.

Only one other Stater has scored more than 100 points during the current campaign; Bill Plutte, freshman center, has garnered one more than the century mark.

Chioino has scored less than 10 points in only five games this season, and against Salinas J. C. he tallied 20 markers, the best performance of the year.

State has averaged nearly 42 points per game this season, scoring less than 35 points on only two occasions.

Upper Class Dean Gives Felicitations

"Once more we're starting what students refer to as a new semester, though it gets to be a familiar experience with us doddering old faculty members. I doubt if, in the course of our teaching, any of us has seen a more important semester than this, for we are launched upon great changes in the college. We suddenly find ourselves immersed in new conditions which have arisen because we have become a four-year liberal arts college.

"I hope old students will be patient with much new red tape, and that new ones will pride themselves upon their part as pioneers in a new movement. 'Let's make history!'"

Signed: Dean P. F. Valentine.

It's like this—
You see I'm reading a Chesterfield advertisement and I'm smoking a Chesterfield cigarette, and all of you are smoking Chesterfields.

Now listen— Chesterfields are mild (not strong, not harsh). That's true isn't it?
Then you read "and yet they satisfy, please your taste, give you what you want in a cigarette." That says it, doesn't it?

Wait a minute—
It says now that Chesterfields have plenty of aroma and flavor. One of you go out of the room and come back. That will tell you how pleasing the aroma is.

Don't Call Him Lillis

BING Crosby was christened Harry Lillis, but no one dares call him Lillis now. He got the Bing because in his first breeches he always asked to have the Bingville Bugle comic strip read to him. He entered Gonzaga University (Spokane) after a taste of running away from home, and did what theatrical people in college seem to do, organized an orchestra and paid more attention to drums and clarinet than philosophy and religion.

A theater manager liked Bing's style of boo-doo-ta-dooing a song, and Bing met Al Rinker, a pianist, whose fortunes were locked with Bing's through enough slap-bang, up-and-down footlight experience to kill two normal lads, including tours with Paul Whiteman as two of the Rhythm Boys who used to render a powerful Mississippi Mud.

Some shorts in Hollywood convinced producers they should take a chance on this boy with a way of singing In the Blue of the Night to send raptures world-wide, and the rest is a story of lush success, much banking for Bing, horses, golf and three sons already well publicized.

A Native-Born Star

RAISED in Hollywood—discovered in Hollywood. This short short story of Joel McCrae's career sets him apart from most native-born motion picture stars who nowadays go to New York to be discovered. Strongly influenced by William S. Hart, he hoped one day to have a cattle ranch. Now he has a ranch of 1,000 acres and besides is a movie star as Bill Hart was once.

At Pomona College Joel's six feet, three inches of stature were used to good purpose in football, track, and footlight activities. Director Sam Wood came to Pomona in 1928 to see his daughter act in a college show with Joel. Wood watched McCrae more than he did his daughter. Though a student of public elocution, Joel didn't get a chance to talk much in the talkies until he was cast in an Alaskan hunting story with the late Louis Wolheim. Talking and acting an outdoors man were two things Joel could do well.
